Rev. Earl W. Clark, former Chippewa Lake boy and later missionary and evangelist gave a lecture in the U. B. church Tuesday evening of last week to a large and appreciative audience. Rev. Clark was a missionary to South America for seven years, and is a pleasant and interesting speaker. He told of his schooldays and other experiences in this town, of his conversion, and how he became engaged in evangelistic work. He says the natives of South America are very friendly and live in huts; women do most of the work; cooking utensils and cooks are crude and dirty while the children are not properly nourished, and said they reminded him of pumpkin seeds—big in the middle and small at each end. They have the nicest hardwood timber he ever saw; pasture lands better than ours; and can be bought for two cents per acre; millions of acres undeveloped; oil and mica fields as good as the world has, but undeveloped. Mrs. Clark had charge of the music and is a good singer and leader. Mr. Clark also sang a song in Spanish. It was a treat long to be remembered by all who heard them.

Rayne of Wadsworth, who will put in a first class grocery and fruit store. They will also handle ice cream, soft drinks and all the other "fixins" that go with a place of this kind. S. J. Rayne will have charge of the store, and expects to be ready for business the latter part of this week. The Raynes are well known to most of our people, and all wish them success in this venture.

OBITUARY

Francis M. Sooy was born in Spencer, O., Nov. 11, 1851, and passed away May 6, age 69 years, 6 months and 25 days. He was the son of Wm. E. and Janette Sooy, to whom two children were born, Francis M. and Anna R.

He was married to Eliza Koons on Feb. 22, 1874. No children were born to this union. Shortly after his marriage they moved to their new house on the farm east of Spencer, where he resided until three years ago, when he was brought to the home of his sister, Mrs. Henry Moore, to be cared for. His health failed him 33 years ago, since which time he had been a great but patient sufferer. For 14 years he was confined to a wheel chair.

He was a member of the Knights of the Maccabees, having been admitted to that order April 23, 1891, and attained the rank of Past Commander in Tent 53 of the Spencer Hive, and remained in good standing.

His wife passed away about four years ago after having faithfully cared for him during his long illness. He was always patient and kind to those who cared for him. His life was spent among people of Spencer and all who knew him can testify to his sterling qualities.

He leaves to grieve his passing, one sister, Mrs. Henry Moore; two nephews, Francis and William Moore; one niece, Wanda Moore, and a host of friends who will miss him.

WORTH WHILE

The purpose of any revival for Christian churches is to have people realize the need of Christ in their lives.

Rev. J. Z. Horton of Washington, D. C., who preached most wonderful sermons for 10 days did a great work for this town and county.

To be good and loyal citizens, men should put Christ in their lives, and to this end did the man of God raise his voice.

We feel very grateful for the cooperation of the white people of Medina, who came to the church and worshiped with us for one common cause. We want to make the most of life; we want to get all we can out of life; therefore we must put forth good efforts. Love, success, and happiness comes to every one of a pure heart, an expression worthy of consideration, spoken by Rev. J. Z. Horton. Those words left their impression stamped on the minds of thoughtful ones. He advised all to dismiss schemes of existence and stay at the foot of the Cross.

Life is tremendous, and cannot be reckoned in 24 hours. For thousands of years must be reckoned in the creation; finite man cannot understand it.

He advised all to leave the house of pretense, sham, and untruth; the guilty he referred to.

We must decide, each for himself, what he must have. Then the strain of living falsely and pretending to be other than what you are, such as posing, putting on, will be our undoing. Out of worry grows discontent. But discontent poisons all that is near it. We should rise from every sleep stronger in hope and courage. Ambition spurs us on for a good purpose, if Christ is in it. There is one thing for which it is worth while to strive, and that is to have Christ come in our lives.

Will you accept Him?

Please find out what you most desire for your lives; how must I do this? Why think on your way, or think about yourself, and not others? Then let us render service—service wins love, for which we all crave.

An earnest thinker will find the key to the store-house of knowledge, and that key is Christ.

Today is the day of salvation; for all we know, the opportunity or choice of our lives. Guard well the importance of the moment if you want success and happiness. Seek friendship; we must learn to forget and forgive, then we shall find the meaning of loyalty and self-sacrifice; companionship will make the dulllest day brightest.

Spasmodic action, accomplishes little or nothing. But steady grinding brings miraculous changes.

Such words of wisdom and knowledge came from this wonderful man of God. He was also instrumental in having eight or more accept Christ as their personal Saviour. We trust to help make our town more worthy of consideration.

Thanking our Christian white friends and visitors for this cooperation, leaving for your approval the work for Christ's sake.

Rev. C. L. MARTIN, Pastor,
Second Baptist Church.
